house" Monday for the poor. Everyone was privileged to eat all they wanted free of charge. 800 car fare prevented us from taking 'er in.

"Well, well," sighed the wife, as she finished exploring her sleeping husband's pockets without discovering a cent, "this is like one of those railroad journeys, going through without change."

Some vandals posted a sign in the postoffice Tuesday morning that the mail was five hours late. Not a few calculated accordingly and later on of course awakened to the realization of having been sold.

Our popular grocery dealer, W. M. Spengler, has made a business trip to and from Toledo upon every Friday during the past year, providing he makes the trip to-morcounty. Call and see him.

The amount of tobacco manufactured in this country is so great that if it were divided equally among the people, every living person would receive seventy cigars, forty cigarettes, four pounds of tobacco and three ounces of snuff, annually.

Huron county has an agriculturalist that seems to be making a success of his business. W. P. Bope harvested 1,000 bushels of carrots this fall from two acres of ground.
The newspaper making a note of this fact, adds: "Mr. Bope is a Democrat, his carrots are first class, his soil No. 1, and he asks neither tariff nor bounty to help him farm it."

The Labadie & Rowell theatrical troupe played at the Rink Opera House Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week the dramas "Jagomar," "Little Galatea" and "Miranda." Every one who witnessed the plays was pronounced in his verdict that the troupe was far above the average. Miss Hattie Rowell is a versatile actress of high order while Mr. Francis Laba-die has a wide reputation as an all 'round actor. The leading gentleman and lady were very satisfactorily supported.
